Hong Kong Government Invites Expressions of Interest in Development of Private Hospitals

Washington, D.C. (December 15, 2009) – The Food and Health Bureau has invited expressions of interest (EOI) from Hong Kong and overseas parties in developing private hospitals at four sites in the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. The deadline for submitting EOI is March 31, 2010.

At a press conference, the Secretary for Food and Health, Dr. York Chow, said the promotion of private hospital development was one of the initiatives under healthcare reform and a major Hong Kong government policy announced by Chief Executive Donald Tsang in his 2009-10 Policy Address.

“The government aims to increase the overall capacity of the healthcare system of Hong Kong through the promotion of private hospital development, so as to address the imbalance between the public and private sectors in hospital services and to ensure our healthcare system can continue to provide quality healthcare services to the public, and to cope with the increasing service demand,” Dr. Chow said.

Dr. Chow noted that Hong Kong was renowned for its high standard of professional healthcare as well as advancements in medical technology and equipment.

“Through developing private hospitals, it is hoped that our medical industry can turn into one of the industries crucial to the development of Hong Kong’s economy,” Dr. Chow added.

To achieve the goal, the bureau has proposed a set of special requirements for development of the four sites that have been identified and reserved for private hospital development. The special requirements cover aspects of restriction on land use, date of commencement of operation of the new hospital, bed capacity, service scope, price transparency, service standard and remedy for non-compliance.

The government will work out the appropriate land disposal arrangements for the four reserved hospital sites, including the means and timing for land disposal, the detailed special requirements and the land premium for the four sites, after considering all the responses and feedback received in the EOI exercise.

The EOI exercise is conducted on a non-committal basis and does not form part of the process for acquiring the sites by interested parties.

Details of the EOI requirements and relevant information are available on the Web site of the Food and Health Bureau: www.fhb.gov.hk/eoi

Interested parties should submit the EOI in English in accordance with the instructions given in the EOI document before 5:00 p.m. on March 31, 2010 Hong Kong time (GMT +8 hours).

Please e-mail inquiries to EOIenquiry@fhb.gov.hk

Hong Kong–U.S. MOU on Wine Marks Closer Bilateral Ties

Washington, D.C.

Washington, D.C. (May 17, 2010) – The Secretary for Commerce and Economic Development, Rita Lau, today signed a Memorandum of Understanding on Cooperation in Wine-related Businesses (MOU) with the visiting Secretary of Commerce of the United States, Gary Locke.

Secretary Locke is leading the first cabinet-level trade mission to Asia by President Obama's administration with Hong Kong being the first stop.

Addressing a luncheon in honor of Secretary Locke, Mrs. Lau said Hong Kong and the United States had maintained healthy and robust bilateral business relations and that Secretary Locke's visit would encourage both communities to work towards stronger bilateral relations and explore new areas for collaboration.

The signing of the MOU on wine marked an important milestone in closer bilateral ties and business cooperation between the two places, she said.

"Today, our relationship with the U.S. takes another major step forward.

Riding on this MOU, we will strengthen our joint efforts on promoting wine-related trading, tourism, investment and education.

"The MOU also covers a number of special areas. These include promoting wine alongside regional and local cuisine, facilitating the organization of wine auctions in Hong Kong for U.S. wines, and encouraging the provision of quality wine storage facilities in Hong Kong," Mrs. Lau said.

Commenting on the announcement, Hong Kong Commissioner to the U.S., Donald Tong, said: "The Hong Kong Economic and Trade Offices welcome this MOU which will help further foster joint efforts by the United States and Hong Kong to promote U.S. wine exports to Hong Kong and via Hong Kong into the massive Mainland markets."

As one of the world's leading wine producers and exporters, the United States is Hong Kong's fourth largest wine importer. Wine imports from the U.S. amounted to US$49 million in 2009-2010, representing a five-fold increase since Hong Kong's duty exemption. U.S. auction houses have held regular wine auctions in Hong Kong with record-breaking sales on several occasions.

The MOU on wine between Hong Kong and the United States is the eighth cooperative agreement concluded by Hong Kong with wine producing countries/regions, coming after those with France, Bordeaux, Spain, Australia, Italy, Hungary and New Zealand.

In February, Hong Kong and the Mainland of China signed a cooperation agreement on customs facilitation measures for wine entering the Mainland market through Hong Kong.
